the American Cup Race

safeguarding of hammer throwing.

Work to Beat Salt Lake-

Captain Is Out.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)

Ogden, Nov. 17 .- After last Saturday's dictory over Granite, the Ogden High school football team has gotten down to real hard drilling and the boys are work-east benchers put up last week was a surprise to Granite and also to some of the local sports, and if they progress as rapidly this next week as they did last week, Salt Lake will not have a ghost of

Reports from Salt Lake say that al

New York, Nov. 17.-Bob Fitzsimmons has finally arrived in Australia, the place he once called home. Bob sailed with can ever reinstate himself with nature in a degree sufficient to hop the ropes it will be the eighth wonder of the world.

FOR GENTLER GAME

GEORGETOWN LINES UP

What's What in Sports All the Time

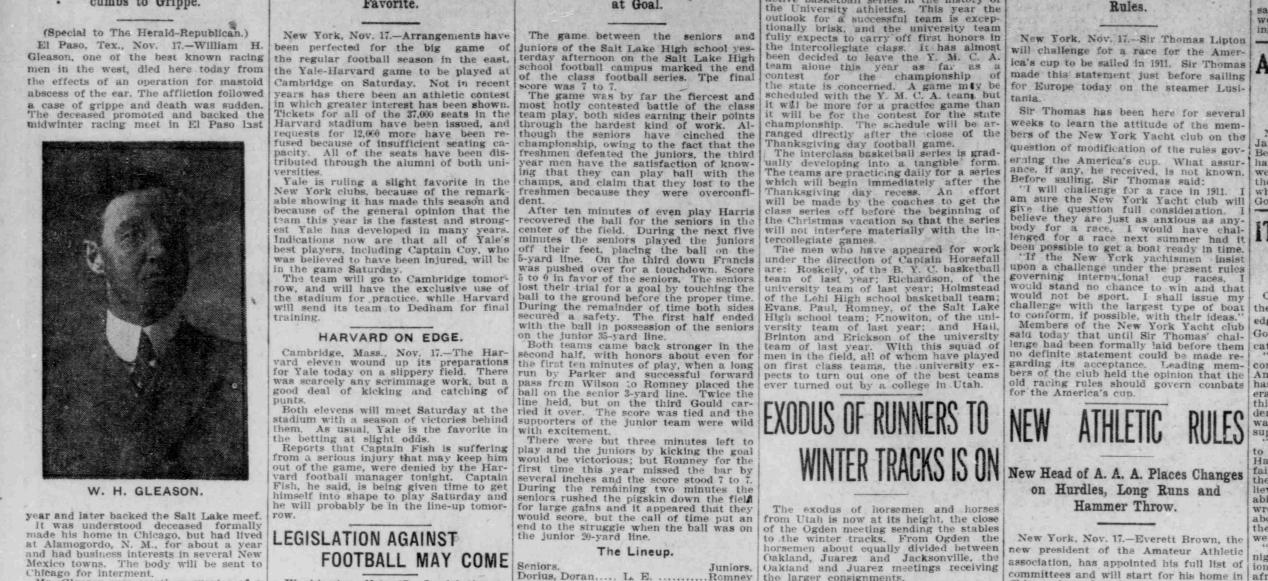

ALL EYES NOW ON YALE AND HARVARD

The Sporting Authority of Salt Lake

WELL KNOWN RACING MAN DIES IN TEXAS

W. H. Gleason, Promoter of First Yale-Harvard Seats Sold Weeks in Seniors and Juniors Offer Fierce Bat-Utah Jockey Club Meeting, Suc-· cumbs to Grippe.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)

and had business interests in several New Mexico towns. The body will be sent to Chicago for interment.

Mr. Gleason was worth a quarter of a nillion dollars, it is said and was known that he was a "square racing man," he provided the financial backing which enabled W. W. Finn to promote the meet.

The occasion of the spring meeting was Mr. Gleason's first visit to Salt Lake, and when the races closed he returned to El Paso, Tex. When the Buena Vista track was opened under the new association this fall Mr. Gleason became a stockholder, but when he returned to Salt Lake. holder, but when he returned to Salt Lake during the last week of racing he disposed sociated with W. W. Finn at El Paso. It is understood that he had a financial interest in the track and association at Juarez, Mex., just across the line from El Paso.

While here Mr. Gleason made many friends nd was well thought of among his business associates. The news of his death came as a surprise to his friends in Salt Lake, who have not been aware of his

SALT LAKE COUNTY WARD BASKETBALL LEAGUE

The work of organizing basketball teams in the various wards in Salt Lake county is now on. Last year there were about twenty teams in the league, while some outside organizations were permitsome outside organizations were permitted to enter and contest for honors. This season, there will be over fifteen teams in the league, the winning team being allowed to contest with one of the strong teams from the interscholastic league for honors. A meeting will be called the honors. A meeting will be called the coming week, when those interested from the many wards in the county will meet and draw up a schedule and all other plans pertaining to the work of the year.

COLLINS GETS TRAINING QUARTERS AND STARTS IN

Joe Burns, manager of Bird Leg Collins, who meets Pete Sullivan at Ogden, has arranged for training quarters for his man at Eastman's hall, 322½ South State street. Bob Watkins, the well known fighter and trainer, will train Collins, with Kid Ross, a clever lightweight from New York, as sparring partner. Collins will do a lot of road work and gradually get into some fast bouts in training. By the end of the week visitors will be welcome to watch his work.

Removal Sale IS STILL ON

Those men who have not visited this removal sale better do so now, as never before in the history of Salt Lake have such values been given on new and up-to-date wearing apparel. Every article in the store reduced 35 to 50 cents on the dollar and absolutely guaranteed and Union made.

Don't forget the place, it's 28 East First South.

Just a few doors east of

Uncle Sam

Responsible Cut Rate

PAWNBROKER Loan Money on Anything of Value.

30 East First So.

Cer. of Com.

MEMORABLE STRUGGLE FINAL GAME OF HIGH PROMISED SATURDAY

Advance; Bulldog Slight Favorite.

FOOTBALL MAY COME Seniors.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Legislation to prevent brutality in football and possibly to actually prohibit the playing of the game is likely to follow the mortality W. H. Gleason became well known in Salt Lake through his association with the Utah Jockey club. Although Mr. Gleason only appeared as the treasurer of the club, it was generally understood that he provided the financial backing which enabled W. W. Finn to premote the meet.

CRIPPLES AND FACULTY WORK HARD ON U TEAM

Despite the fact that the University of Utah at the present time has a team in during the last week of racing he disposed of his holdings to Captain J. H. Hackett. Mr. Gleason's home was at Albuquerque, N. M. So far as is known his first venture in racing circles was in the fall of 1908, when he became associated with W. Wednesday afternoon Fullback Loeil was able to be around, and expects to was able to be around, and expects to be able to get into active practice work by the beginning of the coming week. Even if he is able to get into the game, however, it is doubtful if he will be able to play throughout the half. In this event, his place will be filled by Doo-

The final attempt to get Schweitzer back into athletics failed Wednesday, so that he will be unable to play in the last game of the season. With the exception of Loell, Schweitzer and Grant, the U toam is, however, in fair shape.

AMERICAN LEAGUE TO MEET IN NEW YORK

Chicago, Nov. 17.-Dec. 15 has been fixed as the date for the American league's annual meeting, and it will be held in New York this year, the same as last, concurrently with the National league's business session, already announced to begin on Dec. 14. The announcement was made yesterday by President Ban John-

As the younger league has fewer cases on its docket than its rival, it was figured it could start a day later than the National and still be inconvention at the same time in the event concurrent action on any matters of importance to both leagues is found advisable.

LATONIA RESULTS.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 17.—A disqualification occurred at Latonia, today when Royal Report, after finishing five lengths ahead of the field, was set back to last place in the third race and Carondolet was placed first. McGee had the mount on Royal Report, and, while the foul was unavoidable, yet it was nalpable accordunavoidable, yet it was palpable, according to the judges. Four favorites won.

First race, five furlongs—Dixie Gem. 7 to 1, won; Elizabethan, 5 to 2, second;
Lady Welles, 12 to 1, third. Time,

3.35. Second race, six furlongs—Sevenfull, 3 to 1, won; Ned Camack, 15 to 1, second; to 1, won; 12 to 1, third. Time, 1:16 3-5. Third race, six furlongs—Carondolet, 5 to 1, won; Judith Page, 12 to 1, second; Belle Clem, 9 to 5, third. Time, 1:17 3-5. Fourth race, mile, selling—Ludhiana, 5 to 2, won; Howard Pearson, 6 to 1, second; Tony Faust, 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:45.

3 to 2, won; Bryce, 8 to 1, second; Battle Fleet, 7 to 2, third, Time, 1:49. Sixth race, six furlongs—Fundamental, 11 to 5, won; John Garner, 12 to 1, sec-ond; Polar Star, 3 to 1, third, Time, 1:17 3-5.

LATONIA ENTRIES.

First race, mile, purse—$6319, Hatchi-oon, 103; 333, Cogan, 106; 015, Long Hand, 07; 260, Kempton Park, 107; 336, Royal Re-

6, Serenade. 106; 337, Sainister. 106; 5, Cassawary. 109; —, Stella Glenn, 84534, Miss Popular, 111; 86261. Enlist, 337, Deuce, 114; 337, Thomas Calhoun. Third race, three-quarters mile, purse-T. H. Irvin, 99; 319. Lady McNaily, 99; Autumn Rose, 100; 319, My Gal, 101; 90. Matine H., 101; 86319, Radation, 103; Kiddy Lee, 104.

Fourth race, three-quarters mile, selling —86165, Sister Phyllis, 161; 337, Warden, 106; 206, Austin Sturtevant, 167; 231, Apologize, 116; 344, Minot, 111; 086, Cloisteress, ogize. 110; 344, Minot, 111; 086, Cloisteress, 112; 337, Patriot. 114.

Fifth race, mile and an eighth, selling —86334, Nettie Travers. 105; 334, Mique O'Brien. 105; 334, Battle Fleet, 105; 341, Earl Rogers. 112; 338, Wedgewood. 114; 316, George Bailey. 114; 338, Vanon, 114; 85823, Katie Powers. 114; 86243, Huerfano, 114; 86253, Kings Kuinea, 117; 84358, Jane

. 1	Dorius, Doran L. ERomn
E	Stevens L. TBardwe
	Walker L. G
9	Rydalch C
ı	CulmerJennin
ē	Scranton R. TSpenc
	Ferron, McCann R. E Yunt, Deni
	Harris Q. BWilso
J	Edwards L. HGou
i	Thomas R. H Park
1	Francis F. B Wallace at
Л	Trewe
Н	Referee-McNiece, Umpire-Atkins.

other Leaps Bank, Yet No Injuries.

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 17.—Driving his Buick racer at a terrific pace into the stratch today in the six-hour race, closing event of the four days' automobile meet, obert Burman narrowly escaped death when his machine overturned. Burman was badly snaken up and bruised but not seriously injured. The car turned a complete somersault, just missing Burman when it fell to the ground. when it fell to the ground.

Of the five cars that started in the race, four were wrecked or withdrawn. The Chalmers-Detroit car, driven by Ben Johnson, outclassed from the start, was awarded first prize after covering 216 miles in 4 hours and 52 minutes. Second and third prizes were divided between Clark and De Hymel.

The race started at 11 o'clock this morning. Barney Oldfield, in his Knox car, Tobin de Hymel, in a Stoddard-Dayton; George Clark, in a Jackson; Ben Johnson, in a Chalmers-Detroit '30", and Burman started. On the fifth lap a connecting rod broke and Oldfield dropped necting rod broke and Oldfield dropped out. At 2:50 o'clock Burman overturned While the Stoddard-Dayton and Jackson

While the Stoddard-Dayton and Jackson cars were on their 267th lap, the front wheel of the Stoddard-Dayton machine wheeled off 100 yards into a field. Immediately behind it was George Clark, driving the Jackson.

Seeing that a collision with De Hymel was imminent. Clark pointed his car straight at the high embankment and shot over it. The Stoddard came to a stop fifty yards further on. Clark safely retained his seat in the Jackson as it leaped far over the bank and landed upright a dozen feet below the outer edge. He was not hurt.

TOLEDO MAYOR WAKES UP WHEN REAL FIGHT COMES

Toledo, O., Nov. 17.—Mayor Whitlock tonight issued orders to the police to stop the eight-round match between Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland and "Battling" Johnny Schultz of Toledo, scheduled for tonight. Mayor Whitlock said that he would not allow prize fights here and that several minor bouts recently held did not come to his attention.

MANY NOMINATIONS FOR BIG EASTERN RACES

New York, Nov. 17.—Cheerful news bearing on the future racing outlook in the Metropolitan district came today from the Coney Island Jockey club in an announcement that up to date, there have been received from 56 different nominators 366 nominations for the futurity of 1911 and 169 nominations for the Lawrence realization of 1912, both to be run at Sheepshead Bay.

JOHNSON AND LANGFORD NOT LIKELY TO MEET

Chicago, Nov. 17 .- Jack Johnson is not cikely to box Sam Langford in a real fight for the championship of the world before he takes on Jim Jeffries in the battle that everybody is looking forward to. The big colored fighter intimated as much before he left Sunday night for Indianapolis to fill a week's engagement there.

GRIDIRON INJURY.

Trinidad, Colo., Nov. 17.—Ben Bartholomew, 17 years old, probably was fatally injured in a football game today. He was kicked and internally injured.

was kicked and internally injured.

GOLF DRAWINGS.

The draw for the play in the second flight golf series at the Country club resulted as follows, the play to start Saturday: Steiner against Thompson, Judge against Hale, Dinwoodey against Baker.

WHAT GOTCH SAID.

"Outside of Hackensmith, I met the best man in my career as a wrestler in Dr. Roller. He can throw all these foreign wrestlers just as easy as I can, and is improving all the time.

"I dare say that in a year or so it will be a question whether or not I will be a question whether or not I will be able to handle him."

UNIVERSITY IS AFTER SCHOOL SERIES A TIE THE BASKETBALL TITLE HE WILL TRY FOR CUP

Seniors and Juniors Offer Fierce Battle on Campus—Each Fail at Goal.

With the University football season nearing a close, the university students and coaches are preparing for the most active basketball series in the history of the University athletics. This year the outlook for a successful team is exceptionally brisk, and the university team fully expects to carry off first honors in the intercollegiate class. It has almost been decided to leave the Y. M. C. A. team alone this year as far as a to the winter tracks. From Ogden the horsemen about equally divided between Oakland, Juarez and Jacksonville, the Oakland and Juarez meetings receiving the larger consignments.

Under the weather conditions the close of the racing was not as auspicious as it might have been, and it is not expected that the ponies will be run in Utah later than October in the future.

Within a few days all of the Ogden horses which are to race this winter will have gone, although many will winter in Utah-some by the wish of the owner and some, it must be said, by order of the feedman. Incidentally, there is some Time of halves—20 and 25 minutes. Time out for juniors—3 minutes. Touchdowns—Seniors, Francis; Juniors, Gould. Final score—7 to 7 in favor of the Seniors for class championship. are taking up some of the good ones. Shipped to the winter tracks, a sale brings a nice profit in the majority of

Of the officials at Ogden, W. M. Murray, manager, goes to the Florida meeting where he is to act as paddock judge timer. Judge Blum also goes to pacity. Associate Judge Earl McQuaid has a flattering offer from the Oakland association and will probably make for Work to Beat Salt Lake.

One Does Circus Stunt-An- NEPHEW OF RUBY FITZ

(By W. W. NAUGHTON.) San Francisco, Nov. 17.—A nephew of Bob Fitzsimmons is cutting a wide swath n New Zealand, and according to all accounts is likely to follow in the footsteps In a letter received by the writer today,

In a letter received by the writer today, Fitzsimmons Jr. is described as a likely looking lad, 5 feet 11 inches tall and weighing 154 pounds.

Says my informant: "He has remarkably broad shoulders and long reach. He is a blacksmith and only 17 years old. In his last fight at Timaru he knocked a lighter named McCabe cold and used the regulation Fitzsimmons shift when doing it. He is not likely to be seen in the ring for quite a while unless he breaks away from parental restraint. His people have refused to let him enter into another match until he has reached his twentieth year."

though that team defeated Payson by an overwhelming score, they are not allowing the grass to grow under their feet and are working hard to duplicate the trick here. They are not giving any allowances for surprises and are not letting up on their daily training. GRANITE HIGH TO PLAY BUTTE THANKSGIVING

Montana trip after all. On November 23, the football squad, sixteen strong, will leave for Butte, where the Butte High school will be met Thanksgiving day. Final arrangements were made this week

The agreement has been signed by Coach Moss. Besides the sixteen husky youngsters who will journey to Montana, will be Coach Moss, Kerr, business manager of the team, and Benny Harker, of ager of the team, and Benny Harker, of the Weber Stake academy, who will of-ficiate as umpire of the game. Every member of the team with the exception of Fullback Ashton will make the trip, and will endeavor to get in the best possible condition for the game. Fri-day afternoon the Jordan High school football team will be taken on by Gran-ite in a practice game.

COY TO PLAY DEFENSIVE END AGAINST HARVARD

Washington, Nov. 17.—The faculty of Georgetown university tonight unanimously decided to suspend all football games at that institution until the national football rules committee gives as-New Haven, Conn., Nov. 17.—The Yale 'varsity football team and subs today held their final practice for Saturday's game with Harvard. This consisted of a surance that the game has been shorn of its dangerous features. half hour's signal drill. There was no This action was taken as a result of the fatal injuries received by Archer Christian, left halfback on the University of Virginia football team in a game with Georgetown last Saturday. The question as to who will be at right end for Yale was settled today. Savage will start the game and will give way to chance with him in his present form.

will not challenge him again in the ear future

WHAT GOTCH SAID.

SIR THOMAS DECLARES PAPKE SAYS THAT HE

Kewanee, Ill., Nov. 17.—"I'll meet Stanley Ketchel for the light-heavyweight title if he wants a bout. He can't make the middle limit any more, and I claim I'm champion. But I'm ready to box for middleweight honors or the light-heavyweight title."

This was the expression of opinion made by Billy Papke when he heard that Stanley Ketchel had moved up another class and was now seeking light-heavy-weight honors. Papke denies his right even to this position.

Papke has been training here for some time and is now in good shape. He says that he has not an ounce of extra weight on him, due principally to continued work in the open air. He has made road work and open air gymnastics a leading form of exercise states his return. English Yachtsman Hopes to Change

ALL-STAR CAST---JEFFRIES, GOTCH AND OTHERS---OFF TO PLAY THREE WEEKS

ing form of exercise since his return.

New York, Nov. 17.—A combination of James J. Jeffries, Frank Gotch, Sam Berger and other professional athletes has left here for a tour of at least three weeks of one-night stands, appearing for the first time tonight at Atlantic City, where Jeffries and Berger will box and Gotch will wrestle all comers. H. H.

ITALIAN WRESTLING STAR SAYS GOTCH CAN BEAT ALL FOREIGN ARTISTS

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Giovanni Raicevich, the Italian wrestler, now freely acknowledges that he is not in it with Frank style, although I wish Zbysco and the rest of them well in their attempts to Gotch, especially at the American game of down him.

Gotch, especially at the American game of catch-as-catch-can. The Italian says:

"My defeat at the hands of Mr. Gotch compels me to make a statement to the American people through the Post, which has treated me with the greatest consideration and fairness since I have been in this country. Especially to Italian restdents I would address my remarks. I want to thank them all for their grand support when I needed it.

"When I decided to come to America to challenge Mr. Gotch and do what Hackenschmidt and Pierri's Turk had failed to do, I had but a faint idea of the American style of wrestling. I believed that a very strong man with real ability at the Graeco-Roman style of wrestling which permits of holds only above the beit, would be able to defeat the Americans, no matter how good they were.

"After the proof offered me in last nicks the action, so essential to the American and points of its who is a support to the matter of the matter, it lacks the action, so essential to the American.

association, has appointed his full list of committees and will start for his home in Chicago in a few days. Among the important changes in the rules to govern athletic contests in future, as announced by President Brown, is one that athletes competing in running races of more than five miles must first undergo a physical examination.

Another rule declares that in the Amateur Athletic of the Amateur Athletic o 1892—James J. Corbett defeated John L. Sullivan, New Orleans, Sept. 7, 21 rounds, purse nominally $40,000; actually, less than $25,000.

1897—Robert Fitzsimmons won the undisputed championship from James races, no hurdle shall be allowed unless the hurdles remain standing after the competitor has cleared them, and any competitor knocking down three or more hurdles shall be disqualified. Heretofore J. Corbett, March 17, at Carson City, Nev., In 14 rounds. Purse about $25,000 -James J. Jeffries won the world's title from Robert Fitzsimmons it has been necessary for a hurdler to clear all the hurdles in order to be credited with a record. A special committee ha sbeen appointed to design rules for the at Coney Island, N. Y., in 11 rounds. House was worth over $35,000.

1890-1904-James J. Jeffries defeated Thomas Sharkey, Robert Fitzsimmons a second time; James J. Corbett and Jack Munroe, retiring from the ring after the last-named fight.
1903-Marvin Hart knocked out Jack Root, July 3, at Reno, Nev., in 12 rounds. Jeffries, who refereed, presented Hart with the world's title.

1906—Tommy Burns defeated Marvin Hart, 20 rounds, Feb. 23, at Los Augeles, and claimed the title, 1909-Jack Johnson, colored, defeated Thomas Burns, 12 rounds, in Australia, before a house estimated to be worth $110,000. Burns got $30,000, win or lose; Johnson, $10,000. This was the largest gate ever taken in at a prize fight. AN ILLUSTRATION OF IGNORANCE and fine, but he held the contrivance

"Many of my opponents," said Joseph more trouble than it's worth. There Chamberlain in one of his tariff reform | wasn't a doorway in the village I could years ago, of the umbrella.

ing overtime, getting in shape to give the Salt Lake High a severe drubbing on Thanksgiving day. It is generally con-ceded that Captain Douglass will not be "This farmer had made a journey of some twenty miles on foot to a small town. As he was about to set off for home again, a hard rain came up, and in the game any more this season. His knee, although not troubling him greatly, is in such shape that another game this year will probably leave him a cripple, and it is thought that Coach Brown will not seartfie the most force. his host loaned him an umbrella-a novelty at the time-opening it himself so as to save his friend all possible trouble. not sacrifice the man for a game.

The rest of the team realize the extent of the loss of "Squaw," and they are working all the harder. The game the

"A week later the farmer brought the umbrella back. The weather was bright speeches, "are so ignorant of my propo- get it through, and I had to tether it all the week in a field." NORTHWESTERN CAPTAIN.

'This instrument,' he grumbled, 'is

Chicago, Nov. 17.—John Manley, left nalfback, today was elected Captain of the 1910 football team of Northwestern A good many of the want ads. might be called "ask-ads." Asking goes before getting-and the want ads. are asking for things

The acme of style, fit and quality is represented in every suit or overcoat that bears the Siegel label—in tact, every correct dresser in this city knows Siegel's as the place where correct clothes are found. Every garment tailored over living models, every garment fairly glowing with style and quality, and every one priced the Siegel waylower.

Hats, of course—and the most stylish too-Bellemores at $3.00 and Stetsons at $4.00 and $5.00.

The store with the overcoat stock

A Ninth East Bargain

Handsome red pressed brick cottage of 8 large and conveniently arranged rooms. Modern throughout, including furnace. Lot 21/2x10 rods, east front. Nice lawn, yard fenced and well kept. Owner forced to sell. See

Ashton-Jenkins Company

47 Main Street.